The Association of the Parliament of England assembled.

WHEREAS there has been a horrid and Detestable Conspiracy formed and Carryed on by the Papists, and other wicked and Traiterous Persons for assassinating his Majesty's Royal Person, in Order to encourage an Invasion from France, to Subvert our Religion, Laws, and Liberties: We whose Names are hereunto Subscribed; do heartily, sincerely, and solemnly Profess, Testify, and Declare; That his Majesty King William, is Rightful, and Lawful King of these Realms; and we do mutually Promise, and Engage, to stand by and Assist each other to the utmost of our Power, in the Support, and Defence of his Majesties most sacred Person, and Government, against the Late K. J. and all his Adherents: And in Case his Majesty come to any Violent and untimely Death (which God forbid) We do hereby farther, freely, & unanimously, Oblige our selves to Unite, Associate, and stand by each Other, in Revenging the same upon his Enemies, and their Adherents, and in supporting and Defending the Succession of the Crown according to an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary; Intituled, An Act Declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and settling the Succession of the Crown.

The Votes of the house of Commons have informed the world how far the Parliament has resented this Conspiracy, and how unanimous they are for securing his Majesty's Person and Government against our Enemies. The prosperity of Europe in general depending no less on his Majesty's Life than the safety of these Kingdoms, there is no doubt but the Confederates will shew their abhorrence and detestation of so villanous a design, and 'tis highly probable this will be a means to engage the Northern Crowns against the publick Enemy of mankind, and murderer of Princes, (the French King) for no man of Sense will believe that that King and his Council, whose prudence is so much cryed up should be guilty of such a piece of Nonsense, as to lend his Forces and Generals to K. J. to make a descent in England, unless he had been acquainted with the design of Assassinating his Majesty.

Vox Populi Vox Dei.

First Heaven decreed William should Reign; and then.

Consenting Nations gave their Loud, Amen.

The peoples Voice Proclaiming Gods Decree;

Do's shew at last that Heaven and Earth Agree,

There shou'd be one good King; And this is He.
